RECENT BRIDE

FETED AT LUNCHEON
Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen was the scene of a luncheon Saturday honoring Miss Leola DeLoach, whose marriage was an event of Sunday afternoon.
The luncheon table was exceptionally attractive with a centerpiece of pink and white carnations. The place cards were silver wedding bells. A lovely miniature bride was used at the bride's place while a miniature groom marked the groom-elect's place.
Covers were laid for Miss DeLoach and John Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Felix DeLoach, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Johnston, Miss Hattie Powell and Mrs. Dedrick Davis.
The bride-elect received a piece of crystal.
MRS. DAVIS AND MRS. BYRD ENTERTAIN AT AFTERNOON BRIDGE
On Saturday afternoon Mrs. George Byrd and Mrs. Albert Davis entertained with a bridge party at Mrs. Byrd's home on Park avenue.
Dahlias and ageratum combined with pyracantha in lovely fall colors. A salad course was served.
Mrs. Henry Ellis scoring high, received an antique syrup pitcher. For low, Mrs. Bill Harper received stick cologne. Cut prizes, Irish linen guest towels, went to Mrs. Gene Curry. A similar prize was awarded Mrs. Lewis Hook for floating. Other players were Mrs. Ernest Cannon, Mrs. Sidney Lanier, Mrs. E. W. Barnes, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Lewis Ellis, Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mrs. Bernard Morrie, Mrs. Inman Dekle, Mrs. Jake Smith, Mrs. Frank H. Cohen Anderson, Mrs. Gus Sorrier, Mrs. G. C. Coleman Jr., Mrs. Bernard McDougald, Miss Leona Newton, Mrs. Josh Lanier, Mrs. Joe Robert Tillman, Mrs. Jack Norris, Mrs. Bob Foy, Mrs. John Godbee and Mrs. Bill Adams.

MRS. PARKER ENTERTAINS AS YOU LIKE IT CLUB
The As You Like It Club met Thursday with Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr. The decorations combined gold and silver with colorful wild flowers. Delicious refreshments were served.
Mrs. Grady Bland was awarded a china bell for top score. A flower container went to Mrs. Frances Brown for low; for cut, Mrs. Chalmers Franklin won. Others playing were Mrs. Gordon Franklin, Mrs. Sidney Lanier, and Mrs. Oliver Boyd.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE
On Wednesday afternoon, the Sinkhouse community club house was the scene of a delightful informal kitchen shower given in honor of Miss Jerry Neville, a recent bride.
Gifts were assembled in a large laundry basket and presented to the honoree. After being opened, the gifts were displayed on the dining table which was appropriately covered with a checked damask cloth and with an arrangement of multi-colored tinnies.
In interesting games, novelty kitchen gadgets were given as prizes. A tea pot-shaped recipe book in which the guests had written their favorite recipes and household hints, was presented to the bride.
Assorted party sandwiches, potato chips, toasted nuts, and punch were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Colon Atkins, Mrs. Delmar Rushing Jr., and Mrs. Sam Neville. Others assisting in entertaining were Mrs. George Strickland, Mrs. Delmar Rushing Sr., Mrs. C. M. Neville, Mrs. Clinton Rushing, Mrs. J. O. Neville and Mrs. Jim H. Strickland.

Brooklet Farm Bureau members get steak supper at October meeting

By Mrs. John A. Robertson

The October meeting of the Brooklet Farm Bureau was held last Wednesday night, the 7th, at the community house. A steak supper was served by the social committee.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Lenwood McElveen, talks pertaining to farm problems were made by Robert Wynn, assistant county agent. Bob Mikell, and J. H. Wyatt. The Ladies Auxiliary met in the homecoming department of the school. The social committee, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, chairman; Mrs. Hazel Hendrix, November 4, and both organizations will meet in the community house and the supper will be sponsored by the members of the senior class. The plates will be sold at $1.00 and the seniors will use the money toward the expenses of their class trips next spring.

The following new members were initiated: Ernest Jones, Arthur Sparks, Ted Tucker, Jane Cassidy, Dot Knight, Irene Groover, Yvonne Fordham, Ester Perkins, Angie White, Gail McCormick, William Howell, Silas Williams, Peggy Fordham Shirley Jones, Fae Fye, Betty McElveen, Jackie Proctor, Marilyn Moore, Kay McCormick, Sylvia Parrish, Janel Beasley, and Betty Jo Wilson.

Mrs. W. B. Parrish entertained the members of the Brooklet Club at her home Tuesday night. Those present were Mrs. Lenwood McElveen, Mrs. Ham Smith, Mrs. James McCall, Mrs. Hoke Brannen, and Mrs. J. H. Hinton. After the book reviews were given, the hostess served refreshments.

The first meeting of the new school year of the Boy Scouts was held Monday night at the town hall. The scout leader is J. Shelton Mikell.

The Rev. W. H. Anale, pastor of the Methodist Church, announced that revival services will begin at the New Hope Methodist Church next Monday night, the 19th, and will close on Friday night, the 23rd. The guest preacher will be the Rev. J. Frederick Wilson of the Statesboro Methodist Church. The services will be at 7:30 each evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

The second session of a series of studies was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Watts and Miss Mary Slater, with Mrs. Ed Moore as co-hostess. This study course is sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and is being conducted each Monday afternoon during October by Mrs. W. B. Parrish.

Mrs. John C. Proctor and Miss Nina McElveen attended the PTA council at Portia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons Lee of Jacksonville, Fla., visited

SEEDS OF DESTRUCTION TO BE SHOWN AT DRIVE-IN THEATRE

Had Macon announced today that he has booked the movie, "Seeds of Destruction," a picture which tells "the truth about communism," he said.

The picture to be shown at the Drive-In on Monday and Tuesday, October 19 and 20, tells the story of 30 Americans, most of whom are missionaries, interned in prison by Chinese Communists. The film is interspersed with actual Korean battle scenes which blend in with the story.

The cast includes Kent Taylor, Gene Lockhart, Gloria Holden, David Bruce, and others.

It will be shown at the Drive-In two nights only.

Due to price declines on some livestock, it is more important than ever to emphasize adequate feed production programs, according to agronomists at the Agricultural Extension Service.

A record number of Georgia farmers and 4-H members are expected to qualify for the Georgia 100-Bushel Corn Club this year, say Agricultural Extension Service workers.

A livestock judging contest sponsored by the Southeastern Fair & Cattle Show will award a $180 scholarship to the top 4-H boy in the contest this year.

G.T.C. Professors to go to Gator Bowl Tourney

Georgia Teachers College has accepted an invitation to play in the Annual Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament at the University of Georgia, which will be held in the new stadium at Athens, Georgia, on November 22, 1953.

The statement by Vice-President, who also coaches the basketball team, which finished second in the tourney last year, said:

"Georgia Teachers College has accepted an invitation to compete in this year's Gator Bowl basketball tournament. The invitation was extended by the Gator Bowl selection committee, which has received offers from the larger schools entered."

The Georgia Teachers College team, which rose to prominence under Coach's coaching, opened its season Monday and the Professor's boss said that prospects are much brighter than last year at this stage last year.

The six returning lettermen are much improved over last year. Source said last week's practice. "They are improved over the last games we played, and this fact indicates we will be better than last year."

"Our biggest increase in strength is in the back field, where we have only three men who are really good. We had only three men who are really good."

Woman's Club plan Christmas Lights contest

The Statesboro Woman's Club held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon, October 15, at the Recreation Center.

During the business session, Mrs. Norman Campbell, chairwoman of the American Home Committee, announced plans for the Home and Lawn Christmas Lighting Contest.

According to Mrs. Campbell the Georgia Power Company, and the merchants of Statesboro will cooperate with her committee. She urged club members to keep this contest in mind as plans are formed for decorating homes at this Christmas.

The program last Thursday was entitled, "This is Your Club, This is Your Club." Each member present participated.

Mrs. L. M. Durden made introductory remarks, and Mrs. George C. Hagins was scorekeeper as the club family quiz progressed. Mrs. James P. Collins was quizmaster.

The membership committee, with Mrs. J. L. Zetterberg as chairman, was hostess for the meeting.

THE BULLOCH HERALD

Dedicated To The Progress Of Statesboro And Bulloch County

STATESBORO GEORGIA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1953

Halloween Carnival at SHS is Thursday night October 29

The annual Halloween Carnival at the Statesboro High School will get underway Thursday afternoon, October 29, with the street parade which will make up in front of the Statesboro Methodist Church at 4 o'clock and begin its march led by the band about 4:30.

The announcement is made this week by S. H. Sherman, principal of the Statesboro High School, and Miss Elizabeth Sorrier, director of the Carnival.

Miss Sorrier announced that the theme of this year's Carnival is "American Songs and Dances," which will stimulate the memory of years gone by for most of the citizens of Statesboro. "Included in the dances will be the Charleston of the early 1920's, the Big Apple of the 1930's and many others," she said.

Shirley Atkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Atkins, will be crowned as "Queen of the Carnival" at the beginning of the program about 9:00 o'clock in the high school gym. Robert Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Waters, will be crowned as King.

The students will be Jane Richardson, daughter of Mr. Frank Richardson and the late Mr. Richardson, and her escort, Carl Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Edwards, both of the Junior Class; Victoria Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Wilson, and her escort, Bill Adams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams; and Bob DeLoach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLoach, and her escort, Cole Cassidy, son of Mrs. Mollie Cassidy.

The program will include "Our Early Songs," by the sixth grade; "Country Dances," by the third, fourth, and fifth grades; "Our Minstrel Songs and Dances," by the eighth grade; "The Charleston," by the Big Apple; "The Bunny Hop," and "World War Jongs," all by students of the high school.

More than 300 students will take part in the Carnival. Entertainment booths will be set up between the gym and the band building, with the usual attractions: bingo, fish pond, country store, cake walk, house of horrors, pony rides, food and drinks, and the home made candy booth.

A feature of the carnival will be the Halloween Parade served by the Statesboro High School Band, which will start at 8:30 p. m. from the high school from 6 to 8 p. m.

Mr. Sherman stated that due to many requests for reserved seats, a section has been set aside for reserved seats in the gym this year. Tickets for the reserved seats may be secured from The College Pharmacy at 50 cents each.

The time schedule is as follows: Parade, 4:30; Supper, 6 p. m.; Carnival, 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.; Open at 6:30 p. m.; Carnival program, including the crowning of the queen and king, at 9 p. m.

Halloween Carnival at SHS is Thursday night October 29

The annual Halloween Carnival at the Statesboro High School will get underway Thursday afternoon, October 29, with the street parade which will make up in front of the Statesboro Methodist Church at 4 o'clock and begin its march led by the band about 4:30.

The announcement is made this week by S. H. Sherman, principal of the Statesboro High School, and Miss Elizabeth Sorrier, director of the Carnival.

Miss Sorrier announced that the theme of this year's Carnival is "American Songs and Dances," which will stimulate the memory of years gone by for most of the citizens of Statesboro. "Included in the dances will be the Charleston of the early 1920's, the Big Apple of the 1930's and many others," she said.

Shirley Atkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Atkins, will be crowned as "Queen of the Carnival" at the beginning of the program about 9:00 o'clock in the high school gym. Robert Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Waters, will be crowned as King.

The students will be Jane Richardson, daughter of Mr. Frank Richardson and the late Mr. Richardson, and her escort, Carl Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Edwards, both of the Junior Class; Victoria Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Wilson, and her escort, Bill Adams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams; and Bob DeLoach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLoach, and her escort, Cole Cassidy, son of Mrs. Mollie Cassidy.

The program will include "Our Early Songs," by the sixth grade; "Country Dances," by the third, fourth, and fifth grades; "Our Minstrel Songs and Dances," by the eighth grade; "The Charleston," by the Big Apple; "The Bunny Hop," and "World War Jongs," all by students of the high school.

More than 300 students will take part in the Carnival. Entertainment booths will be set up between the gym and the band building, with the usual attractions: bingo, fish pond, country store, cake walk, house of horrors, pony rides, food and drinks, and the home made candy booth.

A feature of the carnival will be the Halloween Parade served by the Statesboro High School Band, which will start at 8:30 p. m. from the high school from 6 to 8 p. m.

Mr. Sherman stated that due to many requests for reserved seats, a section has been set aside for reserved seats in the gym this year. Tickets for the reserved seats may be secured from The College Pharmacy at 50 cents each.

The time schedule is as follows: Parade, 4:30; Supper, 6 p. m.; Carnival, 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.; Open at 6:30 p. m.; Carnival program, including the crowning of the queen and king, at 9 p. m.
